GOVERNMENT RESISTING DISARMAMENT TO FALL

—HENRY FORD

There is plenty of real constructive work for the thousands, and even millions, of men engaged in maintaining and constructing the navies and armies of the world. To begin with, all war material should be quickly turned into useful material."

LAND DISARMAMENT TO PLAY IMPORTANT PART IN ARMS MEET

Clash Expected Between Britain And France Over Maintainence Of French Army.

BRIAND TO SPEAK AT NEXT SESSION

Will Draw Graphic Picture Of Situation The French Believe Is Now Confronting Them.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16—Land Disarmament—heretofore submerged by the vaster problem of naval limitation —is to play an important and perhaps troublesome part in the Arms parley.

A clash between British and the French viewpoints is in the cards, but America may be able to smooth out the issue.

France wants to keep her army of 800,000. England wants the army reduced holding the army and policy behind it are stumbling blocks to the British commerce and industry.

Premier Briand believes he can reach the American ear better now than ever before. He will speak at the next open session of the conference, presenting his arguments for the maintainance of the French Army He intends to picture France as confronted by the German menace—France entrusted with the enforcement of the Versailles treaty, facing a hostile people across the Rhine—France standing guard over civilization.

Briand does not intend to demand a treaty or guarantee from America as a substitute for the land armament.

ARMS PARLEY MEETS BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

Public and Newspapermen Barred From Session Chamber As Committee Gets Down To Business

FAR EAST PROBLEMS UNDER FIRE

Pan-American Building, Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—The Arms Limitation Conference today entered into the intricate maze of Far Eastern problems. For the first time the conference met in closely guarded secret session. Far Eastern questions are the sole topics of today, with indications that the United States would, in the near future, reveal officially its views on these problems.

Public Barred From Session

Shortly after 11 o'clock this morning Secretary Hughes, chairman of the committee on Far Eastern and Pacific questions, called the committee to order Virtually the entire membership was on hand, each delegation being accompanied by a corps of experts and secretaries.

The doors were shut to the public. Newspaper men were permitted to look at the delegates as they arrived but were expressly forbidden to question members.

The Japanese group, headed by Prince Tokugawa, Admiral Kato, and Ambassador Shidehara, were the first to enter. The Japanese went in briskly, talking animatedly among themselves. They apparently had come for business as a number of attaches carried portfolios.

Much Work to Be Done

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—The Arms Limitation Conference was at work today behind closed doors.

The speechmaking and hand clapping of the conference is done for the time being and the permanent negotiations or "international poker" started here. Upon what happens in the committee meetings now depends the success or failure of the conference.

Although the conference made notable progress in the first two sessions through the acceptance in principle, by the four great powers, of America's arms limitation program, much work in secret remains to be done before a final agreement can be reached.

Two Problems Face Parley

Two great problems are waiting to come before the conference They are:

1 The Pacific and Far Eastern situation.

2. Limitation of land armament.

The Pacific and Far Eastern questions, it was learned today will probably be brought up first in committee hearings. Secretry Hughes, it is believed, will not place America's views on the conference table in the bold manner in which he announced this country's program for the limitation of naval armament.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Armistice Day was very fittingly observed by the pupils and teachers of our public schools. At 10:30 a. m., headed by the Curwensville band the entire school population was assembled in line and formed into a very attractive parade. After parading the principal streets of our town, the pupils were re-assembled in their rooms and observed the silent two minutes from 12 noon until 12:02 Before the parade each room carried out a memorial service The Seventh and Eighth grades assembled with the High school students and each class responded with a memorial address or poem. The teachers who spoke were Prof. Geo. E. Croyle, Prof. Paul A. Zelter, Miss Laura Burket, Miss Laura Walter, Miss Margaret Hile, Mr. John Haley and Prin. Grant Norris. Prof. Croyle pleased the audience with several vocal solos. Curwensville certainly showed on this sad day that patriotism still lives and Peace is much cherished by all.

Mrs. Grant Norris spent the past week with her husband, the guest of Mrs. Alice Montelius, in whose home Prof. Norris Has apartments for the present

Millions Of Children In U. S. Underfed

New York, Nov. 15.—(United Press)—Over 5,000,000 school children in the United States are suffering from malnutrition, according to a bulletin issued by the National Tuberculosis Association today. Malnutrition, when carried far enough, becomes plain starvation. The vast majority of these millions of little ones are malnourished as a result, not of insufficient food, but of improper food.

To relieve this situation a plan for instructing the children in correct health habits has been devised by the National Tuberculosis Association in cooperation with Dr. W R. P. Emerson of Boston, the nutrition expert, and will be inaugurated in schools throughout the country as soon as possible.

The plan will by no means be an experiment since it will follow the lines of the Modern Health Crusade in which over 6,000,000 school children of normal weight are now enrolled. In determining what children should be classified as malnourished Dr. Emerson has decided that a child more than 7 per cent under normal weight for his age and height is clearly suffering from malnutrition It is on this basis that the estimate of 5,000,000 little ones of school age sucering from insufficient nourishment in this country has been made.

Mrs. Carrie Barnhouse, 421 West C. Street, Wellston, Ohio, writes in her own home paper, the Wellston Sentinel: "I feel inclined to tell you what Sorbol Quadruple has done for me. I had an inward goitre for over 20 years. At times I thought I would surely choke to death. I was told it was one of those poisonous kind and that nothing could be done. The night before I began using Sorbol Quadruple I sat up in bed and fanned all night to get my breath.In three days my choking and smothering spells were all gone and to my great surprise my goitre began to disappear. In less than two weeks I had no sign of a goitre. Today it is gone and my neck is as though I never had one. Will gladly tell my experience by words or letter."

Sorbol Quadruple comes in small bottles containing enough for most cases. It will not stain or irritate. Does not interfere with regular work. Leaves the parts in a healthful normal condition. Requires ten minutes daily.

HUNTING PARTY BAGS FOUR BEARS

Curwensville Nimrods In Party That Make First Bear Kill Of The Season.

Hugh Way, Ralph Bennett, Joe Vesco, Americo Abrino, Passinou, Blair Porter and Lewis Brun made up a party of Curwensville hunters who left home Saturday last for the purpose of going into Elk County to hunt bears. They returned Monday evening with three bear cubs as their bag. They arrived at their destination Sunday night and early Monday morning sallied out into the wilds a few miles from Ridgway. Meeting a native Elk County hunter along the road the visitors engaged him in conversation and asked him if he knew where they could find a bear. The Elk County man had a little rat terrier dog with him and while they were talking the dog ran over into a railroad cut a couple of hundred feet distance and began a furious barking. The owner of the dog finally excused himself and went over to see what his dog was barking at When he arrived at the rocks an old the bear came rushing out at him. He raised his rifle and fired a shot into the bear's brain killing her instantly.

Hunters Bag Cubs

He called to the Curwensville hunters to come over and look at his prize. While they were looking at the dead bear one of them decided to take a squint at the hole in the rocks where the bear came out and at which the little dog was still barking This fellow discovered three pairs of eyes shining in the darkness of the cave under the rocks and he called his companions to see the sight. They decided the cavern held three more bears and as many of the hunters were detailed to put a rifle bullet between each of those three pairs of eyes. After the smoke had cleared away sufficiently to ensure a view of the interior the carcasses of three little bears were discovered on the floor of the cave in their death throes

The dead cubs were hauled out of the cave and after being loaded on a convenient fliver the start for home was made. The bears were placed on exhibition at Fullerton's Garage in Curwensville and attracted a large number of the curious. The cubs will weigh about forty pounds apiece.

Becomes Matter of Habit.

Thinking is a habit and at the time we are in the habit of thinking we think best. Children, for instance think best in the hours when they are in school, because that is the time that they are accustomed to do their thinking. Writers and philosophers think best at the time they have daily set aside for thinking; newspaper men on an afternoon paper think best in the morning, and those on a morning paper think best at night. There can be no set time for best thinking, no rule to go by.

Snakes in the Ocean.

It is not generally known that there are snakes in the ocean. There are numerous varieties of small snakes that live in all oceans; then there are the eels, of course, which go from the salt water to the fresh. In the waters around southern Asia there lives the banded sea snake, which has stripes around its body and broad tail, and can swim with great speed.—Christian Science Monitor.

No Set Time for Best Work.

Thomas Carlyle had a room built in his house in Chelsea with double wall, so that he could not hear any of the noise from outside, and in this room he wrote "The French Revolution." Gautier, on the other hand, could not think well unless he was in a newspaper office where there was lots of noise and racket going on. The human brain gets accustomed each day to a certain time for action and it works better and is more active at that time than any other time in the 24 hours.

FRENCH MOURN HIGH PRICES—NO RELIEF

By Web Miller
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Nov. 15.—Despite the drop of prices in the United States, France can hope for no immediate and effective decrease in the cost of living for some time to come, in the opinion of Andre Paisant, Food Minister of France. France must await:

(1) The restoration of her exchange

(2) Rehabilitation of her industrial regions destroyed by the war and consequent restoration of her pre-war producing capacity.

Until both of these conditions are attained, living in France will continue high according to Paisant.

Paisant explained that owing to the fact that France is now obliged to buy extremely heavy in foreign markets, particularly the United States, her merchants are obliged to regulate their retail figures to cover the losses due to the depreciated value of the franc.

"France buys large quantities of wheat in South America and the United States. She buys cotton and linen from America and England and hides for leather goods from Argentine. A large proportion of her manufactured articles now come from foreign factories and will continue to until she has had time to get all her own factories working once more."

Paisant also explained that American exporters overcharged French buyers in many instances.

SUNFLOWER FOR WINTER FEED

Calgary, Alta, Nov. 15—C. E. Thomas, a farmer of Lloydminster, Alta, has loaded into his silo 234 wagonloads of Sunflowers harvested on 14 acres. He kept a careful record of the cost and estimated that his winter feed has been put up at an expenditure of $2 a ton. Up to two years ago sunflowers were regarded as worthless weeds in Western Canada. The experimental farms of the Dominion Government established their value as a fodder crop. They are now popular with farmers all over the prairie provinces.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

"By Skinney"

The mother of a New York four year old boy who is seperated from her husband made demand upon said husband for a few hundred dollars with which to buy winter clothing The husband put up a kick and showed by his records that in two years the boy had been supplied with twenty two sets of underwear, thirty eight pairs of stockings, twenty suits eleven pairs of shoes, three overcoats six hats, eight nighties, twelve underwaists, seven pairs of rompers, one sweater and one pair of leggins.

We were quite some worried the other day when the scientists told us that all the water on the earth was drying up and we were doomed to final destruction through the medium of Nature's Volstead Act. We feel better now because those same scientists tell us that man has lived on this earth but half a million years and we have at least one hundred million years more to live here, before our old world gives way to something better. Guess we can stand it now.

In New York State they are advocating a much more drastic law for the purpose of curbing the reckless and careless automobile driver with his utter disregard of the life and the limb of the luckless pedestrian who is forced to cross his path some time. This law, if enacted, will provide not only for a heavy fine sentence for the driver who runs down a pedestrian but the offending car will be confiscated and sold.

The sponsor for the bill contends the new law will put a prompt end to automobile killings, alleging that whatever the major or minor reasons such casualties are far too numerous and the process of public education and official regulation must proceed till only those qualified to run cars are allowed to use them.

The local health authorities are having considerable difficulty at present with the spread of the mumps epidemic in Clearfield and as a result of the carelessness, ignorance or gross neglect on some of our people in attempting to evade the quarantine regulations by hiding the fact of the infection in their homes and sending the affected children to school and other public gatherings, the town is simply polluted with the annoying disease. The disregard of the health rules in these minor diseases is always the cause of their spread thruout the community and those who should know better and who flout the established rules of the health board should read the following extract from a recent high court decision in passing upon the right of a municipality or a community to establish health rules. The Court says:

"There is no greater authority or responsibility placed upon a city than to establish rules and regulations to protect the health and morals of a city. This power did not suddenly come up, but it followed the growth of civilization in the wake of necessity, progress and science and spread of disease and as conditions arose and necessity demanded, the inherent power to grapple with it sprang into life and action, to the end that the blighting hand of disease might not touch and destroy the inhabitants."

"These here" widows appear to be the same the world over. An American mining engineer located in England becoming lonesome asked the Mayor of Folkestone to help him secure a wife. The Mayor placed a notice in the town papers stating the lonesome one's request and was deluged with replies. One widow wrote that while "she must admit that married life is not all that it is cracked up to be, she is willing to take another chance." Yes! they are all alike.

HOUSEWORK IS A BURDEN

Woman's lot in a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Clearfield women. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. B. Smith, 434 River St., Clearfield, says: "I had an attack of kidney trouble that gave me quite a lot of trouble. I had pains in the small of my back which I noticed more when doing my washing or bending over. I had bad headaches and was tired out and lame all the time. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I bought a box at Irwin's Drug Store. I just used one box and the pain went away and the headaches and lameness left. I have had just a slight attack since, but I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as they again relieved me. I think they are a wonderful kidney remedy."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Smith had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

U. S. CAVALRY ON GUARD TO STOP MEX. GUN RUNNING

By United Press

Calexico, California, Nov. 15.—A carefully planned revolt threatened to throw northern California into open warfare today against the Obregon government. Clashes were reported all along the line between supporters of Escaban Cantu, deposed dictator of Lower California and Federal forces.

American calvary patrolled the California border today in an effort to prevent gun running.

Highways and Talkways

The first improved highway in America is said to have been built in this state in 1794 at Downingtown, thirty miles west of Philadelphia. It was the beginning of the good roads movement that has spread from coast to coast.

Good roads are essential to the prosperity and progress of this community. Ribbons of hard surfaced highways must tie it to the great outside world.

In the same manner the men and women of the Bell System—many of them your neighbors—are maintaining "talkways" not alone to the homes and business houses in this community but also to every other community in the State.

Glistening bands of copper stretch from your door to every corner of the State making "talk travel" possible, without regard to season, weather, or road conditions.

THE COAL TRADE TODAY

The Coal Trade Bulletin in the issues of November 16th, will say:

"Recession has been marked in the coal markets of the country since probability of a railroad strike, and the succeeding possibility of a mine strike have failed to materialize into action. While these two clouds were looming over the industry a spurt was noticeable and there was considerable placing of orders. Now the re-action is gripping the trade hard and rough sledding is the result. It is true that the cold weather of the past few days has helped the domestic market in some of the fields, but industrial fuel is on the retrograde just at present. Production, which had been climbing for some time, has taken a decided slump and mines are operating at lower percentage throughout the country.

"From all markets come the reports of stagnation, with prices shading a little to move distress coal. In fact, in some of the fields, producers, with coal on tracks, are snapping up any offer made for that tonnage—providing it is anywhere within reason.

"While the spurt was in the foreground reports of car shortages were heard, but these have disappeared now that the trade has slumped once more. These reports, however, show that, should a real upward drive take place, car shortages are sure to appear in many of the fields.

"While the coal market has been stagnant and the tonnage has been showing a drop, the production of coke in the Connellsville and other fields has maintained its steady betterment, and the last weekly report shows that the total production has been higher than at any time since early in March.

"Miners who were out on strike in the different fields, following the handing down of the injunction by Judge Anderson, have all returned to work, save those in the Kansas field, where the Howat rebellion against the state laws and the action of the international organization of the United Mine Workers keeps many of the pits idle.

"Export trade continues to be dull, and the come-back of the British coal industry is having a still further depressing effect on this market. To European and South American ports the English freight rates gives the British producer so much of an advantage he is rapidly regaining the trade he lost to his American competitors during the early portion of the year."

PITTSBURGH MARKET SHOWS BUT FEW SIGNS OF MARKED BETTERMENT

"Almost complete stagnation is apparent in the coal market in Pittsburgh at this time," says the Coal Trade Bulletin. "There are but few orders afloat and the production of the mines of the district has dropped approximately to one-third of the capacity, with the tendency to continue downward unless some unexpected event occurs tdo turn things the other way.

"Mines are operating at about two days per week, although the all river mines are doing somewhat better than the average. Labor is plentiful and car supply is more than adequate, although at one period during the fortnight some few instances of car shortage were reported. These were sporadic cases, however, and had no effect on the industry throughout the district as a whole.

"Many of the mines throughout the district have coal on the tracks and the operators are doing their best to get this rolling before it approaches distress.

"Price quotations are: Youghiogheny gas coal, lump $2.75, run of mine, $2.25; slack, $1.76; Panhandle steam, lump $2.50; run of mine, $2.10; slack, $1.50; Bessemer railroad, lump, $2.35; run of mine, $1 90; slack, $1.85; Monongahela railroad, lump, $2.00; run of mine, $1.70; slack, $1.50. While these prices are holding firmly, and the operators are inclined to boost them rather than decrease them, instances of shading are not unkown and the tone of the market therefore is inclined to softness and is likely to remain in its present state until such time as the industries of the district present much heavier fuel demands."

DISARMAMENT

(Tune America)

Disarmament to thee,
We bow on bended knee,
Bid wars to cease,

Sound no more War's alarm,
Safeguard us from all harm,
Ban Wars of every form—
Disarmament.

Think of the dead who lie—
Beneath the starry skie,
On foreign soil;

Think of the mothers brave—
Whose sons are in the grave;
Widows, now left to slave—
Disarmament.

Scatter War's greedy horde;
Cast War-lords overboard,
Forever sheath the sword—
Disarm, Disarm.

COACH CRANE PUTS FINISHING TOUCHS ON LOCAL SQUAD

High School Eleven Comes Through Legion Game With No Casualties—Ready For DuBois Battle

By DICK LEIPOLD

Coach Crane drove the high school grid squad through a long and gruelling practice, Monday night, to whip the team into shape for the classic clash with DuBois next Saturday.

Snow and rain failed to stop the Red and Black's drive, and the entire squad participated in the drill, two elevens plowing up and down the muddy gridiron till the early evening mist made practice impossible.

6-0 Score Upset Friday

The American Legion contest Friday turned out to be fine game, from the schools' standpoint, as the soldiers entered the fray favorites to win by at least four touchdowns, but with a line averaging around 160 pounds, and a fast backfield, the Legion team looked like a sure winner. The personnel of the Legion outfit included players from Penn State, Michigan, Dickinson, Lebonon Valley and former C. H. S. stars, with high school captains being in the line up.

Coach Crane used two different lineups against the Legion, starting the Junior Varsity. The doughboys found their only score near the end of the first quarter thru the line, the students being unable to stop fullback Snavely's terrific plunges. Snavely was formerly a college star, and Coach at the University of Cincinnati.

When Coach Crane injected the first string men into the fray, they evened the count via the air route and had the Army retreating in the final minutes of battle.

No Casualties in Legion Fray

The school boys emerged from Friday's fray in fine shape, gaining much experience in wet field play against heavy opponents. Coahc Crane now has two men developed for every position, and the entire squad will be subject to call Saturday when the locals invade DuBois.

Mt. Union High lost to Lewistown H. S. Saturday 9 to 6.

Huntingdon walloped Altoona by the same score the locals held them too 34 to 0. The game was played at Altoona.

Harrisburg Tech defeated Mt. Carmel High 12 to 0 altho Mt. Carmel greatly outgained the capitol city team.

Success.

"No real man ever reaches what he calls 'success,'" said one of the biggest business men in this country. No one with high ideals is ever satisfied with his own achievement. With every high point gained, some higher peak still looms ahead. Because the high spirit reaches earth's last boundary and finds the goal still unattained, there must be new opportunities still waiting beyond. Even the desert mirage is but a reflection of what really exists somewhere.

WILD LIFE LEAGUE TO HOLD TURKEY SHOOT AT RIDGWAY

The Wild Life League of Ridgway are arranging for an old time "turkey shoot" to be held on the Swiss rifle range at West Ridgway on Saturday, November 19th, beginning at 9 a. m.

Any rifle shooter is eligible to compete and the committee in charge of the event has ordered one thousand pounds of turkeys for prizes for the successful marksman.

The Ridgway Wild Lifes staged a similar shoot last year and it proved to be one of the most successful shoots ever held in the western end of the State.

NEW COUNTY RECORD IS SET—10,000 HUNTERS GET TAGS

License Applications Continue To Pour In—Deer Hunters Expected To Swell Total To Over 10,000

All previous records were broken by the number of hunter's licenses issued in Clearfield county thus far for the 1921 season. The 10,000 mark was reached today at the County Treasurer's office and if the demand keeps up for the remainder of the season as is expected by the clerks in the Treasurer's office at least one thousand more licenses will be issued this year.

Last year during the last two weeks of November 746 licenses were issued and the deer hunters this year are expected to shove the total for 1921 well over the 11,000 mark.

"YOU ARE VERY WELCOME, MY BOY!"

With quavering voice, well disguised, Agatha greeted her blind guest, and put into his groping fingers not her own firm, warm young hand, but the wrinkled one of her old cousin. Why did Agatha wish to make this handsome youth believe that she was a decrepit old lady?

You should see what fun and complications dauntless young Mistress Agatha got herself into when she masqueraded as her own great aunt, and pulled the wool over her guest's already blinded eyes, before a sudden shock restored his vision and enabled him to detect her camouflage.

Don't miss this treat.

Original Weights and Measures.

Weights were originally taken from grains of wheat. The Jews ascribed weights and measures to Cain, the Egyptians to Inoth and the Greeks to Hermes. An interesting series of copper weights (now in the British museum), admirably modeled in the form of lions, 16 in number, and diminishing in regular graduation from one foot to one inch in length, was discovered by Sir Austen Henry Layard, the noted English archeologist, in the northwest palace at Nimrud (pointed out by tradition as the site of Nineveh).
